

1. There are two main international airports in Japan. One is Narita Airport which serves the Tokyo area, and the other is Kansai Airport which serves the Osaka area.

2. What kind of transportation can you find at Narita Airport? Circle all that apply.

takushii basu jitensha densha

3. In Japanese, the fastest train is called the shinkansen.

4. Complete the sentences in roomaji based on the time schedule. Write the appropriate particles in the parentheses.

Tokyo	11:00	Tokyo-(o) gozen 11-ji-(ni) demasu .
Nagoya	13:05	Nagoya-(ni) gogo 1-ji-5-fun-(ni) tsukimasu .

5. In the skit, what kind of tickets did the lady want to buy? Complete the following chart in English.

Date	today
Time	6:00 PM
Destination	Hiroshima
Type of Ticket	Adult
Number of Tickets	2

6. (a) Complete the information in English based on the activity that the studio students are doing.

Where are they? Kyoto

What's today's schedule? see the sumo match at 4:00 PM in Tokyo

What time is it now? 10:30 AM

How much money do they have? 50,000 yen

(b) What kind of tickets do they need to buy? Fill in the blanks in roomaji and circle the correct time for the train.

Kyoo -no [gozen 10-ji 25-fun gozen 11-ji 10-pun]-no shinkansen, date

Tookyoo -made, otona yon-mai / 4-mai kudasai.
destination adult or child # of tickets

6. 東京 literally means Eastern capital.

7. Fill in the blanks in English based on the passage that Keith reads.

(a) Tokyo is the biggest / largest city in Japan.

Yokohama is south of Tokyo.

Yokohama is the second biggest / largest city in Japan.

(b) From my house to the station, I walk.

It takes ten minutes to get there walking.

(c) How will you go from Tokyo station to Osaka station?

I will go by shinkansen.

How many hours does it take by shinkansen?

It will take about three hours.

8. In Japan, the train stations are the center of the communities, and you will find many shops, restaurants and hotels around them. Train lines often own the department stores that are found nearby train stations.

People want to live as close to a station as possible, but wherever the trains don't go, busses fill in the gaps.

9. Write the English equivalents of the following kanji.

入口 entrance

出口 exit

男 man / male

女 woman / female