

RE:DREAM

PURSUITS OF HAPPINESS

Leverage a national multimedia project about the American dream in the 21st century: redreamproject.org

Re: Dream presents 40 individual perspectives on success and obstacles in pursuit of the American dream. These free resources can help students explore career preparedness, social and economic themes and connect their studies to their future.

RESOURCES:

40 SHORT VIDEOS
DISCUSSION GUIDE
RE:DREAM CARDS
ONLINE ENGAGEMENT

WAYS TO USE RE:DREAM IN YOUR CLASSROOM:

- Incorporate Re: Dream videos in class discussions on careers, community involvement, diversity, inequality or the American dream
- Use Re: Dream cards to facilitate a motivational "Re: Dreaming" activity
- Partner with organizations on a student-led campaign encouraging students to share the obstacles and opportunities related to their dreams
- Broadcast Re: Dream videos on your school's TV station
- Encourage students to join the national #MyReDream conversation

Additionally, Re: Dream producers may be available to be interviewed or to help kick off student projects. Contact Re: Dream for more information.

SHARE YOUR DREAM AT WWW.REDREAMPROJECT.ORG
#MyReDream

info@redreamproject.org

